TUESDAY MAY 15

Upon arrival at Shanghai International Airport, you will be met at the gate by airport VIP staff who will whisk you through the airport's Diplomatic Channel. No need to wait in line for Customs and Immigration. Your local guide will then meet you after you have claimed your luggage.

Whether you prefer "Paris of the East" or "megacity of the new millennium", one thing is really worth noting: this brash, energetic 21st century metropolis is really just a baby, young even by American standards. (Peninsula Hotel - Deluxe River View Room)

SHANGHAI

Acrobatic Performance

DAY 2
WEDNESDAY MAY 16 B / L / D

Your tour of Shanghai begins with a lecture/tour on colonial architecture in Shanghai given by a member of the Shanghai Historical Society. This tour will take you into some of the most important buildings along the Bund and former French Concession including the former Hong Kong Shanghai Bank.

En route to lunch, we will travel along sycamore-lined boulevards into the heart of the former French Concession. This section of the "Paris of the Orient" now hosts many arts-based businesses and art galleries that we can visit if you so desire. The afternoon will be spent discovering some of Shanghai's great shopping treasures. This might include a contemporary ceramics shop, the private studio of a renowned fashion designer or a shop selling cashmere for children.

Later today you will be taken to witness the marvelous stunts of the Acrobatic Show.

Shanghai Museum

DAY 3
TUESDAY MAY 15

This morning we will visit one of the best museums in the world for classical Chinese art. While walking you through millennia of beautiful bronzes, jade, calligraphy, paintings and furniture, the Shanghai Museum simultaneously guides you through whole chapters of Chinese history. This being Shanghai, the tour concludes with the best museum shop in all of China.

This afternoon we will visit the Yu Gardens, one of the best examples of traditional Chinese garden design in the country. Afterwards, you will have some time to stroll through Shanghai's Old Quarter.

B / L / D denoted breakfast, lunch, and dinner

A half-day trip takes us west of Shanghai into the delta of the Yangzi River, a fertile area known as "the land of fish and rice". We visit Zhujiajiao, once an important port on the Grand Canal, which retains much of the old charm of this region's numerous canal towns. Stroll along the cobblestone streets and ride a traditional wooden boat along the central canal.

This might include the Taikang Road area, where boutiques opened by up-and-coming local designers are housed in traditional Shanghai Shikumen lane houses. Many of the goods on offer here combine eastern and western aesthetics, offering a reflection of Shanghai's unique history.

BEIJING

The Forbidden City

DAY 2

WEDNESDAY MAY 16 B/L

During the late '60s while the western world busied itself with Beatle mania, more than a million teenagers crammed into the world's largest public square thrusting high their Little Red Books and screaming eternal allegiance to the one, the only, Chairman Mao. Forty years later, the Marxist emperor gazes serenely over Tiananmen Square. You will pass under Mao Zedong's iconic portrait and enter the centuries-old geomantic epicenter of the imperial power he came to replace. Home to 24 emperors, their courts and harems from 1420 to 1924, the Forbidden City today attracts millions of tourists from China and around the world.

DAY 3

B/L

Contrary to what you may have read, there is not one Great Wall of China, but many. Different scenic sections compete for the attention of the first-time visitor, making it vital to choose the right spot for that once-in-a-lifetime experience. We whisk you far from the tour groups. After a gourmet picnic lunch, there will be plenty of time to walk off the pounds, imbibe the majesty of what the Chinese refer to as the "long wall" or ponder the words of former President Richard Milhous Nixon: "This is truly a great wall."
